Planning Director Kristen Guichard presented on the Proposed Zoning Changes A-E.

Board Comments: None

Residents' Comments:

- A. None
- B. Terra Friedrichs of West Acton- questioned why the date on the FEMA map changed. Kristen Guichard advised that the Town's maps have not changed since 2014 and that the 2014 effective date is still accurate which can be viewed on FEMA's website. She noted that the FEMA flood Plain coordinator reviewed the Town's updated draft and stated that the 2016 date was required to be added in the language to reflect FEMA's most recent maps even though Acton's panel effective dates have not changed. Kristen Provided the link to the map. Terra was concerned if the proposed zoning change is less or more restrictive than what is currently in place.
- C. None
- D. David Martin- had questions for the Historic District on the size and setback questions of the reconstructed dwellings.

Terra Friedrichs and Renee Robins- asked the Historic District for clarification on the proposed changes and stated that they are support.

- E. Hussain Khalil- stated he was in support of the proposed changes.

Terra Friedrichs – asked if the accessory apartments would have to have foundations. Kristen Guichard stated yes. Terra questioned the locations for accessory apartments. Kristen Guichard stated that detached accessory apartments must be located on the side or rear of the property. If the accessory apartment is attached to the dwelling it can be located in the front, side or rear.

David Honn- asked for clarifications on square footage, whether it was Gross Floor Area or Net Floor Area and suggested it be noted in the documents for Town Meeting.
