A new housing project located adjacent to the Mt Hope Cemetery on Central Street. It is a difficult site with many issues on the survey and wetlands. The DRB hopes to review the project called 'Planned Conservation Community' if there are four or more homes planned.

Ann Sussman is retiring from the DRB. The board voted to have two co-chairs - Holly Ben-Joseph and Chris Dallmus. We discussed other possible members with one thought to have Peter Quinn an architect to join. Other profession that could help - a Realtor or Developer.
